

Abbott Computer Science Explorer Post (CSEP) IT Summer Worker Program

Abbott Laboratories recruits outstanding high school seniors that participate in Abbott's Computer Science Explorer Post (CSEP). The purpose of this CSEP Summer Worker Program is to provide meaningful professional hands-on experience to students with proven academic performance and leadership potential. Abbott strongly considers these CSEP Summer Workers that continuously excel during the summer for their Summer Internship Program and then the Information Technology Professional Development Program (ITPDP) which is a two-year rotational program designed to develop high potential college graduates into future Abbott leaders.

Minimum Qualifications:

Individuals interested in the CSEP Summer Worker Program at Abbott must be a High School senior, with the aspiration of continuing on to obtain a 4 year college degree majoring in Management Information Systems (MIS), Computer Science, or related discipline.

Ideal candidates will combine technical and business knowledge with analytical strength and creative problem solving abilities. Candidates must have a preferred minimum high school GPA of 3.0/4.0. Candidates must demonstrate Abbott's core competencies of Integrity, Adaptability, Initiative, Innovation and Teamwork. They must also possess desire to drive change in a challenging and dynamic business environment.

"Ideal candidates will combine technical and business knowledge with analytical strength and creative problem solving abilities."

Potential CSEP Summer Worker Positions

Abbott's worldwide business offers its CSEP Summer Worker Program an opportunity to work in a variety of fields, including: Business Systems Analysis, Programmer/Development, Workstation installation and support, Help Desk support, Network infrastructure and support.

Information Technology Interns are provided an opportunity to gain experience in a variety of positions, including but not limited to:

- Computer Workstation Hardware Technician
- Business Systems Analyst
- Programming/Development
- Network Engineering Specialist

Work assignments will be located at Abbott's Corporate Headquarters in Abbott Park, Illinois

Candidates must have permanent authorization to work in the U.S.

<http://www.abbott.com>
<http://www.abbottitpdp.com>